In view of duplication of our project EDU with another defunct company, the company EDU has issued a large amount of tokens. We remind users that if carry out the token operation including the purchase and recharge of EDU, be sure to carry out on regular Exchanges to avoid any confusion, and you can inquiry our intelligent contracts address. Any kinds of situations such as loss of tokens caused by the duplicate name, including not limited to the Exchange to buy or recharge EDU which is not from our EDU project, the consequences have nothing to do with the Exchange, and we are responsible and actively deal with it. We also assume the full responsibility if the Exchange causes any loss of economy, brand reputation or any other negative effects.
